

TO BUY OR NOT TO BUY.

That is the Question.

Rent or buy a home? For many people, it's the most important financial choice they'll make. And while many factors go into the decision, it often comes down to dollars and cents. Have you calculated your rent costs over the long term? You might be surprised at the numbers.

So how do rent costs compare to a mortgage payment over the same length of time? It depends on several considerations, such as interest rates, amortization, tax breaks, and more. But DHI Mortgage is here to answer all of your questions.
